DOCTORAL EDUCATION IN SOCIAL WORK

2019 GADE Award for Educational Leadership in Doctoral Education

Call for Nominations

The GADE Award for Educational Leadership in Doctoral Education is given to a current or former faculty member at a GADE member organization who has made significant contributions to advancing doctoral education in the field of social work. Faculty distinguished by this award display a strong commitment to doctoral education and a demonstrated record of advancing doctoral education at the national or international level.

The winner of the GADE Award for Educational Leadership in Doctoral Education will be provided a certificate and a $1,000 award at the Doctoral Student Connection Breakfast held at the 65th Annual Program Meeting of CSWE in Denver, Colorado (October 24-27, 2019). GADE is unable to pay for CSWE membership fees, travel costs or conference registration.

Group for the Advancement of Doctoral Education in Social Work (GADE)

The Group for the Advancement of Doctoral Education in Social Work (GADE) was established over 25 years ago to provide a forum for sharing ideas and strategies among doctoral programs in social work, and for strengthening efforts at enhancing doctoral education. The membership, comprised of directors of established social work and social welfare doctoral programs located in accredited universities, has established two awards for faculty for educational leadership and mentoring. The educational leadership award reflects our recognition of faculty who have made great efforts to improve doctoral education in social work.

Award Criteria

- Strong commitment to doctoral education in social work
- Significant contributions to doctoral education in social work at the national or international level through policy or program development, research or training on social work doctoral education, development and/or promotion of innovative models of doctoral education, or other activities that have had demonstrable impact
- History of active participation in efforts to improve social work doctoral education
