

Master of Social Work (MSW) Program Coordinator/Associate/Full Professor
School of Social Work
Search #SS-0004-01

The School of Social Work at Boise State University invites applicants for a position as the MSW Program Coordinator at the Associate Professor level. The Coordinator will teach in our CSWE-accredited BSW and MSW programs starting in spring or fall 2012. This is a 10-month academic calendar appointment.

Duties include:

- Versatility and ability to coordinate a substantial MSW program with an on-campus program and three off-site programs
- Teaching across the curriculum in an integrated program serving undergraduate and graduate students
- Research and scholarly activities
- Student advising, active participation on school and university committees
- Service to the social work profession, the community, and the State of Idaho

At a minimum you should have:

- Candidates must have a Ph.D. in Social Work or a related field and an MSW from a CSWE accredited program
- Candidates must have leadership experience, preferably as a BSW or MSW coordinator or chair
- The candidate must demonstrate strong classroom teaching and an ongoing record of research and scholarly publication.

The preferred candidate will have:

- Macro practice, policy and research teaching experience
- Practice experience working with individuals and families in the field of mental health, gerontology, health care, or child welfare
- Two years post-MSW direct-practice experience

Salary is competitive based on qualifications and experience.

To apply: Please send application letter, curriculum vitae, and names, postal and e-mail addresses, and phone numbers of three professional references to the address below:

Roy W. Rodenhiser, Director
School of Social Work
Boise State University
1910 University Drive
Boise, Idaho 83725-1940
(208) 426-1789/4044
royrodenhiser@boisestate.edu

Review of applications will begin October 1, 2011 and will continue until the position is filled.

Boise State University is a comprehensive, metropolitan university serving a diverse population through its undergraduate and graduate programs, research, and state and regional public service. Boise State is the largest university in Idaho, enrolling 20,000 students. The School of Social Work currently enrolls more than 300 undergraduate majors and 200 full- and part-time MSW candidates. The MSW Program provides both two-year and advanced-standing program options and offers MSW education on four Idaho campuses. The School provides certificate programs in aging and refugee services.

About the City of Boise: <http://www.boisechamber.org/>

As of August 17, 2009, Boise State University is a smoke free campus.

Boise State University is strongly committed to achieving excellence through cultural diversity. The University actively encourages applications and nominations of women, persons of color, and members of other underrepresented groups. EEO/AA Institution, Veterans preference.