

Faculty Positions

The University of Kansas, School of Social Welfare is seeking dynamic candidates for Fall 2011. As a part of KU, a nationally recognized Public, Research University, the School emphasizes excellence in both research and teaching. The School of Social Welfare is ranked in the top tier among social work programs in the country, and offers programming at all three levels (BSW, MSW, and PhD). In addition to social work programming at locations in Lawrence and Kansas City, the School supports a viable infrastructure for research and training, with specific research centers that focus on aging and long term care, adult mental health, child welfare, and children's mental health.

Required Qualification:

1. Earned graduate degree in social work from an accredited school of social work.
2. Evidence of ability to teach in a core curriculum area.
3. Publications in major refereed journals, directly related to social work as evidenced by CV.
4. As evidenced by CV, potential for securing external funding for research.
5. An earned doctorate is required by position start date for tenure track assistant professor position.

Apply online at:
<http://jobs.ku.edu>
Position No. 00005511

The University of Kansas is an EO/AA Employer