Assistant Professor Position

The Baccalaureate Social Work Program of the School of Social Work, University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC) invites nominations and applications for a tenure-track faculty position at the rank of Assistant Professor. UMBC was recently recognized as first in the nation for undergraduate teaching and twice named as the premier up and coming undergraduate university in the USA. We are seeking a scholar who will be excited by, and committed to, undergraduate generalist education, and knowledge building through research and publication. Teaching responsibilities are likely to include introductory and policy courses.

Applicants must have the following qualifications: earned doctorate in social work or a related field; master's degree in social work; and two years post-master's social work practice experience.

This appointment is a full-time, ten month, tenure-track faculty position. The Baccalaureate Social Work Program is part of a dynamic, mid-sized, public research university, which is highly competitive in its selection of students who come from across the nation and globe. The Program offers the B.A. in social work, and is a component of the University of Maryland, School of Social Work which offers the M.S.W., and Ph.D. degrees.

Review of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position has been filled. For best consideration please apply by December 1, 2010. Send applications and nominations with the following: curriculum vitae; letter outlining teaching and research interests; names, mailing and e-mail addresses and telephone numbers of three references to:
