

Widener University Tenure Track Faculty Position

Widener University's Center for Social Work Education invites applicants for a full-time, tenure-track faculty appointment at the rank of assistant professor beginning September 1, 2011. Applicants must have a Masters in social work and an earned Doctoral Degree (or anticipate earning the Doctoral Degree by August 2011), some post-masters practice experience, a demonstrated ability to teach in more than one curriculum area and a record that indicates an interest in and a capacity for scholarship and publication. Persons from historically underrepresented groups are especially encouraged to apply.

Widener University, distinguished by its commitment to civic engagement, excellence in teaching, and scholarship is located in Chester, PA, just 12 miles south of Center City, Philadelphia. The Center for Social Work Education offers BSW, MSW, and PhD programs. The MSW program, now in its 18th year, is a single concentration program in agency-based clinical social work practice with locations in both Chester and Harrisburg, PA. The Center for Social Work Education is part of the School of Human Service Professions, which also includes doctoral degree granting programs in Clinical Psychology, Education, and Physical Therapy. The university also offers programs of graduate study in Nursing, Law and Business Administration, thus providing a fertile environment for interdisciplinary collaboration in scholarship and teaching.

Qualified candidates will have the opportunity to teach both required and elective courses in their areas of expertise in more than one of the degree programs offered, participate in faculty governance, and contribute to the development of knowledge in the field through research and scholarly publications.

Application Process. Interested applicants should send: (1) a letter of application describing your interests; (2) a curriculum vitae; and (3) the names, addresses, and telephone numbers of three references to: Professor Thomas Young, Ph.D., Widener University, Center for Social Work Education, One University Place, Chester, PA 19013. Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.

To schedule an interview at the APM of CSWE October 14-17, please contact Dr. Young at tmyoung@widener.edu.
